

Management Board

E. Olvia Beauthauville Reksodipoetro

With extensive experience in charitable and professional institutions, Olvia lends her expertise to her role as chair to the Foundation's Management Board. She is also currently the Chairperson of the Muhammad Subuh Foundation (www.msubuhfoundation.org), an international foundation, as well as a Director of Susila Dharma Indonesia (www.susiladharm.org). In addition, Olvia is currently serving on the management board of the Jakarta chapter of the International Association of Fundraising Professionals (www.afpnet.org).

In 1995, she established her own company – CYBERconsult – doing various projects for the World Bank, the IMF and the U.N.

Ary Prawoto

Ary has studied in Morocco and Jakarta. She holds a bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Master's degree in Industrial and Organizational Psychology from the University of Indonesia. Ary has worked with and for a variety of aid agencies in Aceh following the 2004 tsunami, including the French NGO Aide Medicale Internationale and the Indonesian Association of Psychologists, and is currently the Jakarta-based project coordinator for the YUM Aceh Community Center in Banda Aceh. Ary is also the chair of IRDN (Indonesia Relief & Development Network, a division of YUM). As a sports psychologist, Ary has worked for PASI (Persatuan Atletik Seluruh Indonesia- Indonesian Association of Athletics), PBSI (Indonesian Badminton Federation), and KONI (National Sports Committee). As a human resource consultant, Ary has provided services for such notable institutions such as: Sarlito and Rekan, KIMPRASWIL (government department for Urban and Regional Development) in the cities of Semarang and Malang, and PT International Quatropersisi (IQ). Ary also has experience in public relations, and has been a guest lecturer at many events.

Pahala Nainggolan

Pahala Nainggolan, a registered accountant in Jakarta, serves on the Management Board of YUM as Treasurer I. He is a member of the Indonesia Accountant Association and has written and published four books about Taxation, Accounting and Financial Management of non-profit organizations. He has written numerous newspaper articles about taxation, audit, capital market issues, and non profit issues.

He currently works for Cardno-Acil Pty Ltd, a consulting firm awarded a contract from AUSAID for project management of the Basic Education Project (BEP) which manages loan-funded construction of thousands of schools across Indonesia in cooperation with two government agencies.

Before Cardno-Acil, Pahala worked for three years as the Finance Director for the TIFA Foundation, a non-profit organisation focusing on human rights and promoting open-society communities in Indonesia that provides grants and training to grantees.

From 1998 – 2003, Pahala worked as the Chief Finance Officer for Coastal Resources Center-University of Rhode Island (CRC-URI), a non-profit organization engaged in a seven-year Coastal Resources Management Project in Indonesia, managing funds from USAID Washington and coordinating with selected NGO's in many provinces.

Pahala has also worked with Bechtel International, Inc. and PT Purna Bina Indonesia, acting as the leader of the finance team responsible to the Southeast Asian regional controller; AGIP Petroli Spa (now ENI Group) - PT Agip Lubrindo Pratama, a joint venture company, constructing a refinery plant for processing used oil into motor lubricants; and several government agencies in relation to tax and audit issues.

Pahala is currently pursuing his post-graduate doctorate program in Financial Management at the University of Indonesia, where he received his degree in 2001 in the same area of study.

Bp Djumiko Hadi Saputro

Djumiko was born in Yogyakarta on May 20th, 1941. Upon the completion of his high school studies in 1963 in Yogyakarta, he continued his education in the field of Aviation Operations, also in Yogyakarta. He started working at Garuda Indonesian Airways in 1964 where he was assigned to the Kemayoran Airport in Jakarta. He was subsequently assigned as Station Manager at the airports of Yogyakarta (1983-1986), Cengkareng /Jakarta (1986-1989), Perth - Australia (1989-1994), and Denpasar (1994-1998). He retired from the state-owned company in 1998 and was assigned to its filial company PT Gapura from 1998 to 2003.

Other responsibilities include serving as chair of Subud Denpasar, Bali, from 1994 to 1998, and chair of Subud South Jakarta from 2003 to 2005. Beginning in 2005, he accepted the appointment of Secretary of Yayasan Usaha Mulia.

Ala Sulistyono

Ala Sulistyono, an Australian mother of 2, has lived in Indonesia for more more 23 years. Over the years she has been an active member of various PTAs and a member of the school board for Sekolah Global Jaya. She was awarded lifetime membership for her contributions to social welfare by the Australian and New Zealand Association [ANZA] for her five years of esteemed service working on the Social Welfare Committee.

Besides her contributions to the management board of the Foundation for Noble Work, she also is currently a member of C4, promoting more equal rights for foreigners married to Indonesians.

Hannah Baerveldt

With professional and philanthropic experience, Hannah lends her expertise to the Foundation's Management Board in the areas of fundraising and communications. Hannah is currently serving as a Trustee of the Muhammad Subuh Foundation (www.msubuhfoundation.org), and is on the management board of the Jakarta Chapter of the International Association of Fundraising Professionals (www.afpnet.org). Hannah has also been recently elected to the management board of a Condominium Association located in Toronto, Canada. Hannah holds an Arts & Letters bachelor's degree with honors from Portland State University.

Bp Ir. H. Joyowidarbo

Joyowidarbo was born at Ambarawa, Central Java, Indonesia, in 1939. He graduated from the Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB) in Architectural Engineering in 1963. His first professional post was at the Ministry of Public works where he was eventually appointed as Head of Masterplan Section and Head of Sub-directorate of Urban Planning at the Directorate of City and Regional Planning (1963-1981). He was subsequently appointed as Director of Housing for Settlement Preparation and Director of Planning and Programming in the Ministry of Transmigration (1981-1991). He respectively occupied positions of Director General of Settlement Preparation, Director General of Mobilization and Settlement Development, and Assistant to the Minister of Transmigration and Forest Squatter Resettlements (1991 -1998).

Over the years he has attended various courses on housing and urban planning and development in Tokyo and Nagoya (1966), Brugge (1976), Sydney (1978), Washington DC (1979). He has also attended courses for top-ranking government officials at the National Defense Institute (LEMHANAS) Jakarta in 1991.

Joyowidarbo's vast experience and expertise make him especially qualified for his responsibilities as Head of Assets on the YUM Management Board.

Bp Hermanto Joyowidarbo

Hermanto Joyowidarbo was born in Jakarta, Indonesia, in March 24, 1973. In 2002, he received his degree of Master of Science in Finance from Seattle University, Seattle, USA and has worked as corporate accountant for Cascade Natural Gas Corp., Seattle WA; as Property Tax Accountant at the AT&T Wireless Group, Redmond WA; as Retirement Plan Specialist at the Washington Mutual Bank, Seattle, WA. At present he works as Manager of Finance and Accounting of PT Purbaya Gemilang Sakti in Jakarta. Hermanto is a member of Board of Management of Yayasan Usaha Mulia serving as Treasurer II of the Foundation.